The nomad group launches center in Manila

July 9, 2009 8:40 am

KUALA LUMPUR, July 9 — The Nomad Group Bhd has launched its 11th centre in the heart of Makati City, Metro Manila, despite the global economic uncertainty.

Chief executive officer, Hew Thin Chay, said the centre, The Nomad Offices PBCOM Tower, which was located on the 40th floor of the Philippines' tallest building, would give the group an edge over its competitors.

He said PBCOM Tower, home of Philippine Bank of Communications (PBCOM), has been designated by the Philippine Economic Zone Authority (PEZA) as one of two certified information technology (IT) buildings in the country where IT companies would enjoy special tax incentives and privileges.

"The Nomad Offices is also certified by PEZA as an ECOZONE enterprise. It is the first and only serviced office provider in the country to attain such certification," he said in a statement here on Thursday.

Hew said there was an increase in demand for outsourced workplace which provided connectivity and the necessary support services needed to expand business faster and to remain competitive.

"We are confident that despite the slowdown, there are still entrepreneurs and businesses looking for conducive working spaces and serviced office is a solution in times like this," he said.

The Nomad Offices currently manages a network of serviced offices in Kuala Lumpur, Singapore, Jakarta, Ho Chi Minh City, Bangkok and Manila. (PNA/Bernama)
